

Dear FCC,

A few giant corporations controlling the vast majority of our nation's media outlets is an extremely scary proposition. There is too much chance that the media will reflect the biases and beliefs of these small number of corporations, which will undermine the democratic basis of our country.

For this reason I oppose the FCC proposal to remove restrictions on ownership of newspapers, television, and radio stations.

Sincerely,

T. Kopley

La Honda, CA